

Prevent Duty - Dealing with Extremism and Radicalisation

Date	Review Date	Designated Safeguarding Lead	Deputy Designated Safeguarding Lead	Nominated Governor
	September, 2017.	Mrs. Liz Moore.	Miss Alison Oatey.	Mrs. Angela North-Rose.

It is believed that this policy should be a working document that is fit for purpose, represents the school ethos, enables consistency and quality across the school and is related to the following legislation:

- Education Act 1996
- Children Act 2004
- Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006
- Equality Act 2010
- Children and Families Act 2014
- Education Act 2011
- Counter Terrorism and Security Act 2015
- Special Educational Needs and Disability (Detained Persons) Regulations 2015

The following documentation is also related to this policy:

- Dealing with Allegations of Abuse against Teachers and other Staff: Guidance for Local Authorities, Headteachers, School Staff, Governing Bodies and Proprietors of Independent Schools (DfE)
- Equality Act 2010: Advice for Schools (DfE)
- Keeping Children Safe in Education: Statutory Guidance for Schools and Colleges (DfE)
- Prevent Strategy (HM Gov)
- Teaching approaches that help build resilience to extremism among people (DfE)
- Working Together to Safeguard Children: A Guide to Inter-agency Working to Safeguard and Promote the Welfare of Children
- Channel Duty Guidance - Protecting vulnerable people being drawn into terrorism (HM Government)

Thrussington C. of E. Primary School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of all children and account is taken of the information contained in the DfE documents 'Working Together to Safeguard Children' and 'Keep Children Safe in Education: Statutory Guidance for Schools and Colleges (DfE 2015)' as the safety and protection of children is of paramount importance to everyone in this school.

All children have the right to be safe in our society. Therefore, there is a duty to ensure arrangements are in place for safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children by creating a positive school atmosphere through teaching and learning, pastoral support and care for both pupils and school personnel, training for school personnel and with working with parents.

Thrussington C. of E. Primary School.

Under the 'Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015', the school has a duty to have 'due regard to the need to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism'. This duty is known as the Prevent duty and we believe it is essential that school personnel are able to identify those who may be vulnerable to radicalisation or being influenced by extremist views, and then to know what to do when they are identified.

Radicalisation 'is a process by which an individual or group comes to adopt increasingly extreme political, social, or religious ideals and aspirations that reject or undermine the status quo or reject and/or undermine contemporary ideas and expressions of freedom of choice'. (Wikipedia). While extremism is best defined as the holding of extreme political or religious views.

The Channel programme 'which focuses on providing support at an early stage to people who are identified as being vulnerable to being drawn into terrorism' uses a 'multi-agency approach to protect vulnerable people by identifying individuals at risk; assessing the nature and extent of that risk; and developing the most appropriate support plan for the individuals concerned.'

Under the statutory guidance on Prevent, the school has a duty to have in place a risk assessment, a working partnership with the Local Safeguarding Children Boards, training school personnel and IT policies.

The school has a duty to actively promote and embed British values such as 'democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs' and to challenge pupils, school personnel or parents who express extremist views contrary to these values. The school endeavours to ensure that pupils are prepared for life in modern Britain by the active promotion of and respect of British values.

The school will refer any concerns regarding individuals or groups of individuals who have or demonstrate extremist views to the relevant outside agencies as it is felt that a duty is owed to intervene at the earliest opportunity and to protect those concerned.

The school will ensure that counter-radicalisation strategies will not prevent teachers discussing with their pupils controversial ideas and topics as it is desirable that pupils should develop their own critical thinking skills.

Aims

- To safeguard and promote the welfare of all children and individuals.
- To identify, protect and support those who might be vulnerable to being radicalised or influenced by extremist views.
- To be vigilant against all forms of radicalisation and extremism.
- To ensure compliance with all relevant legislation connected to this policy.
- To work with other schools and the local authority to share good practice in order to improve this policy.
